Exhibition Regulations

5.4 Payment Terms

5.4.1 Payments

The US Dollar is used for all charges at the prevailing rate as follows:

1. 50% with signed Space Contract.
2. Remaining 50% balance before the 25th of March, 2010.
3. Exhibitors will not be allowed to occupy their stand if the payment schedule on the Space Contract and Invoice is not paid on time.

5.4.2 Cancellation of Participation

In the event if the organizer agrees to any part of the exhibit contract, the exhibitor will be liable for all, or part of the cost stated in the contract in accordance with the following scale:

1. The applicant will pay 50% of the contract if the application is cancelled 3 months before the show.
2. The applicant will pay 100% of the contract if the application is cancelled 1 month before the show.
3. This scale of charges will apply only from the date the organizers receive written notice by letter, fax or e-mail. In addition to this scale, the exhibitor will be liable for any additional incurred costs by the organizers.

These terms cannot be varied under any circumstances.

5.4.3 Failure to Exhibit

Any exhibitor who has signed a Space Contract for exhibition space, and for any reason fails to exhibit will not be released from the participation terms by the organizers. The exhibitor will be held liable for the full amount stated in the Space Contract plus any additional costs incurred by the organizers such as a result of failure to exhibit.

5.5.1 Insurance

The organizers themselves, their servants or agents shall not be liable for the safety of exhibitors, their servants, agents, contractors, or invitees during the exhibition, or for any articles of any kind brought into the exhibition by the exhibitors, their servants, agents or contractors, invitees or members of the public. Exhibitors shall make sure that they are fully covered by insurance, including, but not restricted to, all risks on their property, exhibits or articles or any kind of public liability and comprehensive protection against any losses or damages caused by any circumstances, whatsoever, whether by reason of fire, water, theft, accident or any other cause. The period for which such insurance will be maintained, shall run from the time the exhibitor, or any of his servants, agents, or contractors, first enters the exhibition grounds up until all his exhibits and property have been removed. The Exhibitor shall insure against, indemnify and hold the organizers harmless in respect of all costs, claims, demands and expenses to which the organizers may in any way be subject to as a result of any loss or injury arising to any person (including members of the public, the organizer's staff, agents or contractors) or property, no matter how caused as a result of any act of default of the exhibitor, his servants, agents, contractors or invitees.

If the organizers so demand, the exhibitor shall provide a proof to the organizers that the exhibitor has adequate insurance coverage. Exhibitors must ensure that their temporary staff and the staff of their servants, agents or contractors are insured against for workman's compensation.

The organizers shall not, in any event, be held responsible for any restrictions or conditions which prevent the construction, erection, completion, alteration or dismantling of stands, for entry, placement or removal of exhibits, or for the failure of any service or amenities provided by the Hall landlords or other third parties. The organizers shall not be liable to the exhibitor for any cancellation or part time opening of the exhibition either as a whole or in part, or for any amendments or alterations to all, or any of the rules and regulations caused by circumstances beyond their control.
